Our new heritage project Lily's Legacy is hoping to record all aspects of Liberal Jewish history and heritage in the UK.

We are looking for a range of items that tell a story about Liberal Jewish life past and present including recordings and transcripts, congregational archives, photographs, leaflets, posters, letters, emails, banners, badges, videos, ritual objects, artwork and any other memorabilia.

Further, we are keen to the stories of Liberal Jews of all ages and from all walks of life by means of oral history recording - both video and audio.

All these stories and materials will form a permanent record at the London Metropolitan Archives and other national heritage institutes.

At the moment we just want to find out what is out there.

Please help us by taking part in a quick Heritage Mapping Survey at this link:
